

AS76959

■ Baking in limelight . . . Brumby's boss Michael Sherlock turns up the volume at Brumby's Clayfield with, from left, Shalayne Little, Kandice McKewin and Tania Carpenter in support.

Bread Zeppelin helps raise some dough

BRUMBY'S at Clayfield is tuned in to the possibility of rock glory at the 2005 Cerebral Palsy League fundraiser Boardroom Blitz next month.

To drum up support for the Brumby's 2005 contender Bread Zeppelin, the company's boss Michael Sherlock unveiled a larger-than-life bread guitar at the Clayfield shop on Friday.

The band, comprising Brumby's staff from Brisbane, Townsville, Melbourne and Perth, will compete for a third time.

"It's to raise money for charity, but all the people in the band have been in bands so they're pretty good at it," Mr Sherlock said.

During its set, Bread Zeppelin, previously Talking Breads and Grateful Bread for past competitions, will no doubt draw on bread-inspired tunes.

Past favourites have included a cover of Sky Hooks' You just like me because I'm good in bed, as You just like me because I'm good with bread.

Boardroom Blitz is at the Brisbane Entertainment Centre on October 15. To book, visit www.boardroomblitz.org.au or phone 3358 8027.